

Deutscher Holzschutzverband
für Außenholzprodukte e.V. (DHV)
German Wood Preserving Association

The Deutsche Holzschutzverband für Außenholzprodukte e.V. (DHV) is the professional organization of the German producers of wooden products for garden, landscaping, playgrounds inclusive stakes for wine- and fruit growing and noise barriers, impregnated with pressure- and hot-and-cold open tank methods.

Main object of the DHV is to open and to safe new and old fields of use for local softwood species by professional preventive treatment.

At the moment, the DHV has about 30 members. The place of business and legal seat of this association is Bingen/Rhine.

To reach the above mentioned main object, the business of the DHV is

- representation of impregnation industry interests in opposite to authorities, other organizations and competitors
- assistance to all members, who have problems with their authorities
- practical implementation of seminars to gain technical skills according to DIN 68800-3:2012-02
- cooperation in German national mirror group dealing with European standardization
- consultation of members, customers, authorities in all questions of wood preservation
- co-operation with other organizations of the wood-industry, scientific institutes and associations for the purpose of processing mutual interrogations
- implementation of marketing activities for impregnated wood for outdoor-use
- members information about new developments in environmental protection, techniques, standardisation, wood preservatives and preservation methods
- organization of meetings to interchange ideas and experiences

For more information please see content of the DHV-webpage or contact

Deutscher Holzschutzverband
für Außenholzprodukte e.V.

Saarlandstraße 208
D-55411 Bingen
Germany

Tel. +49(0)6721-9681-0 Fax +49(0)6721-9681-33
E-mail: dhv@holzschutz.com
URL: www.holzschutz.com